If You Need a Medicine You Should Have the Best

Have you ever stopped to reason why it is that so many products that are ex-tensively advertised, all at once drop out of sight and are soon forgotten? reason is plain—the article did not fulfill the promises of the manufacturer. This applies more particularly to a medicine. A medicinal preparation that has real curative value almost sells itself, as like an endless chain system the remedy is recommended by those who have been benefited, to those who are in need of it.

A prominent druggist says "Take for example Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, a preparation I have sold for many years and never hesitate to recommend, for in almost every case it shows excellent results, as many of my customers testify. No other kidney remedy has so large a

According to sworn statements and verified testimony of thousands who have used the preparation, the success of Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root is due to the fact, so many people claim, that it fulfills almost every wish in overcoming kidney, liver and bladder ailments; corrects uri-nary troubles and neutralizes the uric acid which causes rheumatism.

Strangely enough, the South Amer mate king of Spain, Ferdinand VII. Joseph on the throne of Spain, Venezuela, New Granada (Colombia) and Buenos Ayres (Argentina), revolted almost simultaneously in 1810, deposed the royal officers, and established juntas with the avowed purpose of holding those colonles for King Ferdinand. In March of 1811 a Venezuelan congress was convened and on July 5 a declaration of independence was adopted. In New Granada the province of Cartagena declared its independence in the same year. Bogota, or the province of Cudinamarca, proclaimed itself independent "during the captivity of the king." The eastern provinces sought an alliance with Venezuela. Meantime, a revolution broke out in Ecuador, which was joined by the part of New Granada adjoining, but this seems to have been a rather mixed up affair. the revolutionists not exactly sure of what they wanted.

Revolution Expanded.

The revolution in Buenos Ayres spread over all that section, but it was not until after independence was declared, what is now the Argentine Republic taking the name of the United Provinces of La Plata. Paraguay, which revolted in 1810, proclaimed its independence the next year and refused to unite with La Plata, which, as yet, had not revolted. Uruguay had been made a part of Brazil in some of the and was held by a Portuguese army.

1814 King Ferdinand had been restored to the Spanish throne, so those had not declared their independence seemed to have little excuse for their Independence or existence as govern-

Brazil's Independence Declared. In 1822 Brnzil declared its independence of Portugal and set up as an empire under the head of the royal house of Braganza, who gave up his claims to the Portuguese throne. In the tumult which raged around her in South America Brazil took no part. Her revolution was peacefully accomplished and her independence peacefully secure. But all Spanish-Amer-Ica was to a state of chaos. The revolted colonies could not even agree among themselves and were rentaby international discords. It looked as if Spain, by a vigorous effort, might yet restore her authority in South America, attacking the revolted colonies in detail.

Simon Bolivar had now succeeded in forming out of Venezuela, New Granada and Ecuador the Republic of Colombia. He saw that union was necessary for the securing of the independence of the colonies and in January of 1823 sent Don Joaquin Mosquera to Buenos Ayres to propose a defensive alliance of the United Province of La Plata and the Republie of Colombia.
